THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L.K. ADVANI): (a) and (b) The identification and deportation of illegal migrants and their deportation is an ongoing process and would continue so long as illegal migrants continue to infiltrate into Assam.

(c) 9599 persons have been declared as illegal migrants (Foreigners) by illegal Migrants Tribunals in Assam and 1454 illegal migrants have been deported upto 30.6.1998.

(d) Direction hae been given to the State Government to activate the IM Tribunals and ensure early disposal of the cases pending betore these Tribunals. TAhe State Governments have also been directed to apprehend those illegal migrants declared as such by the Tribunals and arrange for their deportation at the earliest.

White Paper on Disappearance of Netaji Bose

375. SHRI RAHASBIHARI BARIK: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have a proposal to publish a white paper on the dramatic disappearance and subsequent demise of Netaji Subash Chandra Bose; and

(b) if so, the steps taken in that direction?

THE MINISTER HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L.K. ADVANI): (a) No, Sir.

(b) Does not arise.

Violence against women

376. SHRI ASHOK MITRA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the number of recored cases of violence against women during 1997-98 and the first six months of 1998-99, State wise;

(b) whether there is a statistical corelation between the prcliteration of crimes of this nature and the expansion of cable-television networks in the country; and

(c) whether the scotch the evil, Government have proposed to adopt measures to regulate satellite television programme similar to those in practice in the People's Republic of China and Singapore?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L.K. ADVANI): (a) Available information in the enclosed statements-I and II. [See Appendix 85, Annexure No.]

(b) and (c) The reasons for crimes against women are multifarious, but direct cause and effect between crimes against women and expansion of Cable Television Networks is difficult to establish. The Government is, however, deeply concerned with the problem of crimes against women and is actively associated with the efforts of the State Governments to curb this menace.